To Our Friends and Customers:

We take pleasure in inviting your attention to the statement of this Bank printed below and to thank each one of you for your loyalty to our institution during the past four years of depression, and to bring you this message of cheer and good will.

We are firmly convinced that we are emerging from this depression and that each one of us can look forward to the future with confidence, and that if we use discretion and good judgment, the future holds bright prospects for us.

It is with pride that we can boast of the fact that our Bank has taken care of each and every customer who was entitled to credit during this depression.

We have not been unreasonable as to security when our customers desired to borrow money. We have not demanded as security for loans either cotton or Government Bonds, but have loaned money on reasonable terms and security.

Any Bank can say "NO."

Any Bank can lend money during good times, but not many are able to see the necessity of lending money during times of depression.

WE INVITE YOUR ACCOUNT ON THE FOLLOWING TWO STATEMENTS OF FACTS:

Our Bank has been and is conservative enough to lend its funds with enough care to make it

Our Bank has been and is progressive enough to lend its funds for the upbuilding of the terri-Second. tory in which it is located.

Do you not think a bank conducted along these lines is the kind of bank you should do business with?

We Do Not Buy Cotton.

We Do Not Lend Money On Automobiles.

We Do Not Lend Money On Speculative Stocks or Bonds.
